2. About Carrathool Shire Council

THE COUNCIL AND ORGANISATION

Located in the Riverina region of New South Wales, Carrathool Shire is about 570 kilometres North of Melbourne and 680 kilometres West of Sydney and covers an area of almost 19,000 square kilometres. Named after an aboriginal word meaning “native companion”, Carrathool Shire was home to the Wiradjuri people for more than 40,000 years.

Carrathool Shire is a predominantly rural area, made up of the town of Hillston and the surrounding villages of Goolgowi, Merriwagga, Rankins Springs and Carrathool.

The Shire has a population of approximately 2,719 people. (2016 Census) The rural land is used largely for agriculture and horticulture, particularly sheep and cattle grazing, intensive poultry farming and cotton and rice growing. Citrus and other fruits, nut, olives, and vegetables also contribute strongly to the local economy. Council is presently experiencing a high level of agribusiness and associated development.

The people of Carrathool Shire are a close knit community, and they have told us their vision is to have a connected and thriving community enjoying active and fulfilling lives while protecting and appreciating our environment and unique way of life.

The Shire offers a relaxed, laid-back family lifestyle, with diverse culture, recreation and sporting facilities. The Lachlan and the Murrumbidgee Rivers both flow through the Shire, and the historic Willandra National Park is located only a short distance from Hillston.

Residents of Carrathool Shire enjoy a vibrant lifestyle in a rural setting, close to the modern amenities offered by Griffith City, Wagga Wagga and Albury.

The organisation has stable leadership, a committed team and is supported by good facilities.
